Victoria Rowell—National spokesperson for Annie E Casey Foundation's direct service Family Services

A versatile actress of theatre, primetime, daytime and feature films, the Victoria Rowell is known around the world for her various roles. She is an icon in daytime television as the feisty Drucilla Winters on CBS's highly-rated daytime series, "The Young and the Restless." She has been nominated twice for a Daytime Emmy and awarded 11 NAACP Image Awards. " She also co-starred in the CBS hit primetime television series "Diagnosis Murder" with Dick Van Dyke."

Victoria Rowell— a survivor and supporter of foster care—will bring awareness and understanding about foster care to attendees.
